Family subscription

The GAF Friends Family Subscription is valid for two adults and any children under the age of 16. Both adults receive Friends Cards.

Priority Bookings for Friends

There will be an initial period when tickets for GAF fundraising events go on sale when they will only be available to friends. The length of this period will be decided according to the event. After this time tickets will be available to the general public and will be sold on a first-come-first-served basis. Friends may book for themselves and one guest during the priority booking period. After the priority booking period they may book as many tickets as they like.
